Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center on October 28, 2010, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The petitioner seeks classification as an “alien of exceptional ability,” pursuant to section 203(b)(2)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(2)(A). Form I-140, Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker, was electronically submitted to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services on December 22, 2009. Part 1 of the Form I-140 identifies Abbott Laboratories as the petitioner. In Part 8 of Form I-140, under “Petitioner’s Signature,” counsel signed and certified the petition electronically. Form I-140 was not signed by the petitioner, as required by regulation, but instead by the petitioner’s attorney. The only signatures on the form are that of counsel. The AAO notes that the regulations do not permit an individual who is not the petitioner to sign Form I-140.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a) provides:

(2) Signature. An applicant or petitioner must sign his or her application or petition. However, a parent or legal guardian may sign for a person who is less than 14 years old. A legal guardian may sign for a mentally incompetent person. By signing the application or petition, the applicant or petitioner, or parent or guardian certifies under penalty of perjury that the application or petition, and all evidence submitted with it, either at the time of filing or thereafter, is true and correct. Unless otherwise specified in this chapter, an acceptable signature on an application or petition that is being filed with the [USCIS] is one that is either handwritten or, for applications or petitions filed electronically as permitted by the instructions to the form, in electronic format.

Form I-140 Instructions state:

If the petitioner is an individual, then that individual, or that individual’s legal guardian if he or she is incompetent or under 14 years of age, must personally sign the petition. If the petitioner is a corporation or other legal entity, only an individual who is an officer or employee of the entity who has knowledge of the facts alleged in the petition, and who has authority to sign documents on behalf of the entity, may sign the petition.

There is no regulatory provision that waives the signature requirement for a petitioner to designate an attorney or accredited representative to sign the petition on behalf of the petitioner. In this instance, the petition has not been properly filed because the petitioner did not sign the petition. Pursuant to the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i), an application or petition which is not properly signed shall be rejected as improperly filed, and no receipt date can be assigned to an improperly filed petition. While the service center did not reject the petition, the AAO is not bound to follow the contradictory decision of a service center. Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra v. INS, No. 98-2855, 2000 WL 282785, *1, *3 (E.D. La.), aff’d, 248 F.3d 1139 (5th Cir. 2001), cert. denied, 122 S.Ct. 51 (2001).

In the present matter, counsel signed Form I-140 petition both on behalf of the petitioner and as the preparer. The signature line on Form I-140 for the petitioner provides that the petitioner is certifying, “under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America, that this petition and the evidence submitted with it are all true and correct.” To be valid, 28 U.S.C. § 1746 requires that declarations be “subscribed” by the declarant “as true under penalty of perjury.” Id. In pertinent part, 18 U.S.C. § 1621, which governs liability for perjury under federal law, mandates that: “Whoever in any declaration under penalty of perjury as permitted under section 1746 of title 28, United States Code, willfully subscribes as true any material matter which he does not believe to be true is guilty of perjury.” 18 U.S.C. § 1621.

The probative force of a declaration subscribed under penalty of perjury derives from the signature of the declarant; one may not sign a declaration “for” another. Without the petitioner’s actual signature as declarant, the declaration is completely robbed of any evidentiary force. See In re Rivera, 342 B.R. 435, 459 (D. N.J. 2006); Blumberg v. Gates, No. CV 00-05607, 2003 WL 22002739 (C.D.Cal.) (not selected for publication).

The AAO notes that an entirely separate line exists on Form I-140 for the signature of the preparer (Part 9) declaring that the form is “based on all information of which [the preparer has] any knowledge.” Thus, Form I-140 petition acknowledges that a preparer who is not the petitioner cannot attest to the contents of the petition and supporting evidence. Rather, the preparer may only declare that the information provided is all the information of which he or she has knowledge.

Because the underlying petition was not properly filed with the petitioner’s signature as required by the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(2), further action on the petition cannot be pursued, and the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
